Cover Story

Jim Ramthun Show Horses is a full service training and showing program located at Rao Farms on 265 scenic acres in Richfield, Wisconsin. This state of the art facility provides year round individual comfort and care for our horses and riders. Our team specializes in English and Western all around horses and our training is based around a consistent, nurturing approach, always keeping in mind the horse's best interest. We do our homework at home and showcase our efforts at the show, staying mindful that we ride our horses at home the way we want to show them in the ring. Our horses and riders are well rounded and versatile. We pride ourselves in staying true to why we do this, our love of the horse. If you are looking to strengthen your technique and partnership with your horse, give Jim a call 262-707-0240.

A letter from our President, Kathy Doyle

Dear Friends,

As our 2015 show season has come to an end we can celebrate all the great accomplishments of our members showing our American Quarter Horses. This year brought about the long awaited opening of an Equine Show Facility in Wisconsin. It was great to see the shows in Madison. Each of the shows with a few changes each time saw improvement as the show season went on. I'm sure 2016 will be even better yet.

The State of Wisconsin has been well represented at the major shows across the county. We have members who showed their horses to become World Champions, Congress Champions, Regional Champions, AQHA ROM's and AQHA Superior Awards along with awards from many of the other organizations that they belong to. Congratulations to all of you. I also want to congratulate all of our members and friends that have participated in the Trail Ride program and the Open Show Program.

I want to thank all the WQHA members, our National Directors and our WQHA Board of Directors for working this year to make our shows and events a success. It takes a great deal of time and dedication to put on the Horse Shows, Horse Fair, State Show, Banquet, Awards Presentation, Publications, Social Media outlets and Youth Events just to name a few. I encourage anyone that is interested in helping at any of these events to let the chairman of the committee know. We will be a much better organization if members that want to express their ideas, comments and concerns volunteer to be on the committee and work at the event.

I look forward to working with all of you this next year. My communication line is always open. I love new ideas and suggestions on how we can improve the WQHA for all our members. We have a great organization because of all of you. Thank you for your support.

Best Wishes
Kathy

200 Point Amateur Champions

Katie Kosobucki & Good Sweet Angel

I was so surprised to learn that I was receiving the 200 point amateur award this year. I honestly was not keeping track of my points and was shocked to learn I had accumulated that many. Two years ago, I never thought I would have been winning any awards for WQHA. I had previously shown paint horses and was nervous and scared to be switching over to what many have heard me jokingly refer to as "The Dark Side." The "Dark Side" has turned out to be an excellent decision. Last year, I showed "Wilma" (Good Sweet Angel) in the western pleasure and had a great time. I enjoyed showing and continued to grow as a rider. In addition, I met many wonderful people, had lots of fun, and made many memories outside of the ring. This past year, I decided to add showmanship and performance halter to our line-up. Although at times it was challenging with a green showmanship horse, it was very rewarding. I couldn't be happier with how the 2015 show season ended up!

A special thanks to Robert Schmitz for introducing me to Wilma, taking great care of the horses, and his on-going support, encouragement, and assistance when the rides are both good and bad! Thank you Rhonda Spratto for all of your help with showmanship and squeezing me into lessons when your schedule was already busy. Also a big thank you to my parents who started my love for showing horses and continue to support and cheer me on in these adventures. Lastly, thanks to the Schmitz Quarter Horse group and the other exhibitors for the warm welcome, support, and great times!

I am looking forward to 2016!

We extend a great Thank You to Barb Shudy for all of her volunteer years with the WQHA Open Show Program!

We sincerely appreciate the 10+ years of work she has put into the program!

Alexandria Zunker & One Chocolate Night

Zeke and I have been partners since I purchased him in the fall of 2012 as a three year old. We show in the halter, showmanship, western pleasure, horsemanship and most recently the trail. Both Zeke and I have put in a lot of time and effort working towards becoming a team and I think this is the year we actually achieved some of our greatest and most consistent teamwork. Earning our 200 Point Amateur Champion is a huge surprise and honor that I really wasn't expecting and I'm very thankful to the WQHA for this award.

I'm thankful for my Mom, who is the best chap and show clothes measurer on either side of the Mississippi! I'm thankful for my Dad, who always makes sure my ponies have enough to eat. I'm thankful for my brother, Dallas, who makes me want to be a tougher competitor. I'm thankful for my horse trainer, Zoe Miller (and Josie too!), who puts up with all the "princess packaging," "Should I do that one more time?" and the many showmanship lessons in 25 degree weather! Zoe and everyone at JZT Quarter Horses always make sure to keep Zeke happy and healthy while I'm teaching. Most of all I'm thankful for my horse. I'm not sure how or why he does it, but he always tries to do his best for me and at the end of the day that's why I love him so very much. We have a lot of work left to do, but I know Zeke and I have the determination and support to get it done.

Thank you WQHA and we look forward to showing with you all in 2016!

- Lexi and Zeke

Gary W. Rudolph July 17, 1939 - September 15, 2015

Wisconsin Amateur Quarter Horse Association would like to announce the Gary Rudolph Memorial Trophy in memory of Gary whom passed away September 15, 2015. He was a member of Wisconsin Quarter Horse Association where he served 2 years on the board of directors: and on the State Show Committee, and helping wherever needed on various other committees. Gary's passion was in raising, training, and showing quarter horses. He was always available to offer a helping hand behind the scenes, a kind word or just a smile!

The qualifications for recipient of the Gary Rudolph Memorial Trophy will be:

A person who exemplifies the characteristics that Gary exhibited..... a smile, always there to help, behind the scenes go to guy.

More information will be posted on the WQHA Web site and forms will be available at the Paper Valley show in June.

The trophy will be presented at the 2017 WQHA banquet.

200 Point Amateur Champions

Debra Kluz & Willy Impulsive

Willy Impulsive aka "Earl" was my back-up plan, that was, in case Hesa Supernatural (Peter) didn't come back from a torn suspensory. I was looking for an All-Around prospect and the Rita Crundwell dispersal sale is where I went. I spent 3 days looking at horses, mostly yearlings. I had my eye on a black yearling filly, but then I spotted this neat looking yearling stud. He had this look about him, like he was a working horse. A long mane, good looking, and so full of himself. He was in a pen with 20 other yearling colts standing eating at the hay bunk. I had him taken out to watch him run around the round pen and heck he ran around like a wild mustang, bucking and kicking, but there was something about him. He had the kind of breeding that should be the kind of horse that would do everything I liked to do (Good I Will Be x Shezan Impulsive Zip). I wanted that Trail, Showmanship, Pattern horse. I told Gary that I found a horse and as he gave me the blank check required he told me; "Now you know you don't have to buy one!" Yea ok. The next day I bought Earl. Gary and I came to pick him up the next day and as they loaded him in our trailer I said holy crap he's big....and he got bigger and bigger and taller and taller. But he has turned out to be exactly what I had hoped for, an All-Around. With the help of Jennifer Burton, Earl and I have already achieved so much in our first year. He is an Amateur AQHA Champion, Superior in Amateur Performance Halter, and points in Showmanship, HUS, Equitation, and Horsemanship. We qualified for the Select and Amateur World Show in all the events. I guess I just lucked out!

Gwen Prince & Decklicious

If I had to choose one word to sum up this year, it would be grateful. When I started the journey of finding a new horse, the last one I thought I would end up with was a mare, and a red one at that! I am grateful to Paige Quartermann and Bill Rosenfeldt for giving me the opportunity to own Decklicious, aka Jill, as well as their continued support.

I am grateful to Larry and Rhonda Spratto not only for trusting me to buy this red mare, sight-unseen, from 5,000 miles away, but for all of their hard work, encouragement, support and dedication to making us a team. (Although we are still very much a work in progress!) Thank you both for everything—there are not enough words to express my gratitude.

I am grateful for all of the volunteers and members of WQHA for their time and effort into making showing in Wisconsin fun because for me, that is what this is all about. I am grateful for my horse show family for their encouragement and great memories we created this year. I am grateful for all of the new friendships I have developed through this crazy horse addiction as well as the opportunity to strengthen old friendships. Thank you all so much for the encouraging words, hugs, love and support this year—it has helped me get through a difficult time.

I am grateful for having my new sister, Kristi Tompkins, come into my life when I really needed her. Kristi, your love and support mean more to me than you will ever know!

I am grateful for Decklicious, my Jillybean, who has taught me patience and, with every ride, creates the opportunity to learn and grow as an equestrian. I am blessed to have experienced an incredible year of showing and am honored to have done it with a such a great partner.

"No matter what happens, no matter how far you seem to be away from where you want to be, never stop believing that you will somehow make it. Have an unrelenting belief that things will work out, that the long road has purpose, that the things that you desire may not happen today, but they will happen. Continue to persist and persevere." — Brad Gast

Kamryn Kruchten & Chex Out My Lope

I am 16 and currently a Junior at Waunakee High School. I have been showing under the guidance of Jeff Greaves since 2011. My horse, Chex Out My Lope (AKA Penelope) is an 8 year old mare. I show her in the Western Pleasure, Horsemanship, Showmanship, and Trail.

Thank you Jeff Greaves, Alex Miller, and my family for everything. You have no idea how much I appreciate it all. I don't think I could ever repay Jeff for all of his countless hours of help and dedication to get Penelope and I where we are today. Without my family, none of these amazing opportunities would be possible.

I am looking forward to the 2016 show season! Good luck to everyone!

All Around Youth 13 & Under

Samantha Burn & Swell By Choice

When my Mom and Dad took me on a family trail ride eight years ago, I never expected it to bring me to where I am today.

The people I have met along this journey have been wonderful, and they're now like family to me. In the spring of 2015,

I was given the amazing opportunity to show my horse, Swell By Choice, or "Tye". Thank you to Mark Albright for leasing Tye to me. My trainer, Kirsten Mellenberger, has taught me many lessons, both in the saddle and in life. I can't even begin to thank her enough for everything she's done, and making Tye and I the team we are today. This year has completely surpassed my expectations, and I couldn't have done it without my family, trainer, and friends that have made it so memorable.

Josie Austin & JG Color Me Casey

This year has truly been one to remember. Ever since I was a little girl I've dreamt of showing AQHA, so this show season was quite literally a "dream come true".

Not only was I excited to finally live my dream, but I was also ecstatic that I was able to experience it with my once in a lifetime horse JG Color Me Casey ("Casey Jones" to those who know and love him). After spending about 4 years showing Casey Jones on the buckskin circuit, I was both excited and nervous to make the switch to quarter horse. I went into my first show of the season hardly knowing anyone, but was welcomed with open arms and met so many wonderful people. I would like to give a big thank you to everyone in WQHA for making this a truly positive experience. I would also like to thank Kirsten and Jerry Mellenberger of New Era Equestrians for their help making this year a success, the members of New Era for all of the laughs and wonderful memories, and my ever amazing family for being the perfect "horse show family". Congratulations to everyone on a successful 2015 show season and here's to preparing for 2016!

Bill Goggins Award Winner

Roberta Kelley & Doctor Evil

Hello from the south (Illinois). In today's mail, I was notified that my horse, Doctor Evil (aka: Zack) and I have won a couple of awards. I'm thrilled and want to share my thoughts...

Winning the 2015 Bill Goggins Award/Traveling Trophy AND the 2015 Hi Point for NA WP award is a great honor. When I read the award notification letter, I had no idea of our accomplishments and/or about the Bill Goggins award. I quickly went to your WQHA website and Googled it. Although the last award winner that was featured on the website was from 2012, it explained the significance of the award. Gosh - it hit close to home for me! You see, Bill and I have a lot in common. Thankfully, I survived. I was evacuated from a horse show in July and put on full life support. Death never was an option, but I did worry about my horse and son who was left at the show while I was transported via the ambulance to the nearest hospital(s). My life was saved. One week after the discharge from CCU, I was back in the saddle and in the show pen with Doctor Evil! I was given a second chance and I embrace every moment that I spend doing what I love.

I am honored to accept the Bill Goggins award, since we have much in common: an addiction that also includes great people and fun. I'm that he and I could share stories about the wonderful friends we have made through our horsing around and swap horse takes-- especially about memories in Wisconsin. Just as Bill's 1989 friends were called the "over the hill gang", I am 51 and receiving my first hi point award and it is my first year of WQHA. Finally, we also shared similar lives as a Corporate Executive, thus I relate well to his comment about the worst day at a horse show is better than the best day at the office! :-)

As for my horse, KUDOS to him! Doctor Evil is a classic halter bred horse that has a unique gift of great legs and brains! We made our debut at the Lazy Days show and won the Circuit Award. Hard to believe it was our first show AND that neither of us had any previous WP points.

The rest seems to be a blur of smiles... Thanks to the hospitality of the WQHA, our beginning was one of the best memories I have in the show pen(s) and we continued to achieve several goals this year. I've learned that it is never too late to embrace what you enjoy and to never take a moment for granted.

A Special Thank You...

Jazzie and I would like to thank Larry & Rhonda Spratto for believing in us and making our dreams become a reality.

I also want to thank Greg Mode for the continued support and helping me to follow my childhood dreams of showing at this level.

And to Jazzie for being 'my rock' in building my confidence in the show pen and my partner.

ULCERS???

Treatment or Prevention! It's your choice, let Doctors Choice help!

Gut Defense supplement is designed for horses with a history of ulcers, or those prone to ulcers, traveling frequently, are heavily stressed, or are hard keepers. Gut Defense contains Probiotics, BioMos, Integral A, Nucleotides and enzymes. It's been well-documented that over 90% of race horses and over 60% of performance horses (hunter/jumpers, dressage, endurance and western) have ulcers. In a new study it shows that even small changes in the routine of a recreational horse can cause ulcers in as little as five days. College of Veterinary Medicine at Iowa State University

Wisconsin Quarter Horse Association 2016 Barcoding

To make entering classes at WQHA approved show faster, easier and more accurate, WQHA will be barcoding exhibitor's entries again this year. If you plan to show a horse at the Wisconsin AQHA Shows in 2016 that has not been barcoded, please send the following information to Lisa Busby:

- 1) Copy of horse's registration papers
- 2) Copy of 2016 negative Coggins Test.
- 3) Copy of AQHA cards of all exhibitors and owner(s) on one sheet of paper.
- 4) List of classes each horse will be shown in.
- 5) To Renew your back number from 2015, write the number at the top of your registration papers.
- 6) $10.00 fee
