June 14th -18th - Cap Gun is gearing up for another fun show at the Alliant Energy Center in Madison, WI. Save the dates, June 14-18, 2017! We're trying to have something for everyone and are looking forward to WQHA walk-trot classes, lead line, walk-trot classes, fence classes, driving classes, ranch riding and reining as well as the core classes that make up the basis of the show. There will be daily prizes, circuit awards, all-around awards, and of course the daily trivia question. Cap Gun would also like to welcome Tim and Trish Schmahl to Cap Gun management. Ron and Pat Miller realized in 2016 they needed to involve people who had skills they didn't but still had the same philosophy about the direction and future of the show. Tim and Trish filled that bill, and Ron and Pat are excited about working with them. NOTE: *Jumping Classes have been added to the Wednesday and Friday Show Schedule - All Age, Amateur and Youth.

This year Cap Gun has added a Non-Pro Versatility Challenge - The Wisconsin Equine Non-Pro Versatility Challenge will consist of showmanship, equitation, horsemanship, and barrels. Yes, barrels – so get those cans out and start practicing! There will be awards for each segment of the Challenge and awards for the average. Keep an eye on our web site, for more details. Wisconsin Equine Clinic has added $1,200 to the Challenge!

Western Spur Giveaway - Cap Gun is happy to announce a great donation for youth and amateur western exhibitors. Greg Mode and Tina Bothum wanted to support Cap Gun and felt providing a donation of custom, western spurs designed by Holly Spagnola of Holly Spagnola Design of Harwington, Ct., valued at approximately $650., would be a unique and useful way to show support for the Cap Gun show and the American Quarter Horse which Greg and Tina are proud to raise and show. Greg and Tina also raise a few litters of Jack Russell Terriers every year. If you are looking to add a new family member, whether it is an American Quarter Horse or a Jack Russell Terrier, please feel free to contact Moon Crest Quarter Horses and Jack Russell Terriers at minnnielou@yahoo.com or call (920)728-2023. Greg and Tina want to wish everyone good luck at the Cap Gun Show!
See you in June!
