

By-Laws (As of January 1, 2022)

Article I Name and Object:

This association will be known as the Wisconsin Quarter Horse Youth Association and will at all times be operated and conducted as a not-for-profit association in accordance with the laws of the State of Wisconsin.

Article II Relationship to Parent Association:

All proceedings of this Association will be in harmony with the policies, activities, and rules of the American Quarter Horse Association and the American Quarter Horse Youth Association. This association will also act in harmony with the policies and activities and follow the by-laws of the Wisconsin Quarter Horse Association. Elections are to be held annually with Nominations and Voting at the WQHA State Show if time allows for a meeting to be held. If the show runs late, then Nominations and Voting may occur at the January General Meeting.

Article III Officers:

The officers of the Association will be President, Past President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Reporter, and Social Director(s). All officers must be WQHA members. In the event that an officer is unable to fulfill their duties and resigns after the annual meeting has been held, the President and Youth Advisors will appoint a replacement. ANY OFFICER MISSING MORE THAN ONE MEETING DUE TO AN UNEXCUSED ABSENCE WILL HAVE THEIR OFFICE TERMINATED AND NEW ELECTIONS FOR THAT POSITION WILL BE HELD.

The President will:

- Assume the duties of the President when the President and Vice President are absent
- Assist with the All Novice Show (if being held)

The Vice President will:

- Assume the duties of the President when the President is absent
- Keep a log of attendance at meetings, which will be brought to each show (The presiding officer shall take attendance when the VP is absent)
- Obtain a list of youth from the advisor, whose "Letter of Intent" and sponsorships were in by the June 1st deadline and keep track of those youths' work requirements
- Bring the World Show and Congress "lists" to each show

The Secretary will:

- Take minutes of meetings
- Give or E-mail a copy of the minutes to the Advisors within two weeks of the meeting
- Be responsible for special mailings
- Post a copy of the minutes from each meeting at the next show's entry booth

The Treasurer will:

- Keep track of finances, which will all go through the WQHA Treasurer, and get start-up money for events from WQHA Youth Advisor
- Prepare a yearly statement with the Youth Advisor

The State Reporter will (Secretary to assume duties if no Reporter is in office)

- Prepare news for the WQHA Newsletter, Youth facebook and instagram, reporting on current and past events
- Reporter MUST E-mail copy to the advisor prior to sending copy to publications for approval and any additions/corrections needed
- Be timely and adhere to publication deadlines
- Will send special event pictures and copy to the Quarter Horse Journal for possible publication
- Work with the youth advisor to expand communication via the internet
- Update Facebook and Youth tab on the WQHA website

Social Director(s) will:

- Research possible activities for youth members at each show (movies, bowling, go-carts, volleyball, etc.)
- Organize and inform youth about activities available at each show
- Coordinate and oversee promotion of upcoming events and fundraisers

These positions are for a one-year period. Officers will be elected at the State Show meeting for the following year. If there is a vacant position left at the end of the State Show meeting, it will be open for nominations and voted on at the annual meeting. If an officer needs to be replaced, youth will be nominated from the floor. Attending adults will tabulate the votes. After a youth has been elected, a form will be signed by the youth and his/her parent(s). The form will solidify the commitment of the youth to the Wisconsin Quarter Horse Youth Association's needs.

There is a mandatory meeting for all outgoing officers, incoming officers, and advisors prior to the annual meeting to facilitate a smooth transition of officers.

Article IV Youth Advisors:

WQHA shall have a Youth Advisor(s) to:

- Oversee activities and offer suggestions
- New advisor(s) need to fill out the AQHA Youth Advisor Form, have it signed by the WQHA President, and send it to AQHA
- Ensure that all forms are submitted annually to AQHA
- Be in charge of World Show entries/stalls and Congress entries (If the advisor cannot attend the World or Congress, he/she shall appoint a qualified representative to takeover his/her responsibilities)
- Assist Youth Team in planning Stall Decorations and Walk In
- Receive and keep track of the Letters of Intent (for the Youth World Show and/or Congress NYATT to the WQHA Point Chairperson and Vice President as soon as possible after the June 1st deadline)
- Members interested in reserved camping at the AQHYA World Show need to get an AQHYA World Show RV Reservation Form, which must be sent/postmarked on June 1st to AQHA.
- Assist Members with Pre Order Bedding for the AQHYA World Show, forms are available from the Advisor on online at AQHA.com

These positions shall be for a one-year period. The WQHA Board must approve the Advisor appointees.

Article V Meetings:

The Annual Meeting shall be held on Saturday of the Annual WQHA Banquet and Awards Convention. At this meeting by-laws may be revised and AQHYA Leadership Conference delegates shall be discussed.

These are due to AQHA by March 1st. There is a mandatory meeting for all outgoing officers, incoming officers, and advisors prior to the annual meeting to facilitate a smooth transition of officers.

- Other general meetings will be conducted at horse shows
- The President may call special meetings; however, the general membership must be informed of these meetings
- All members in good standing may vote at any meeting
- The Advisor, Assistant Advisor and President will determine meeting dates prior to the first show of the year. The meeting dates will be cross-posted to the WQHA website (Youth Tab), WQHVA Facebook page, and announced at each show. Meeting times will be announced at the show the day of the meeting

Article VI Amendment of By-laws:

By-laws may be amended by a majority vote at the annual meeting or may be amended at regular or special meetings by a two-thirds vote if all members are notified of the proposed changes and meeting a minimum of two weeks prior to the meeting.

Article VII Sportsmanship and Booster Awards:

Sportsmanship/Booster Awards shall be awarded to the youth with the most votes by the Youth membership at the annual meeting.

The winner of the Sportsmanship/Booster Awards will be recognized at the Annual WQHA Banquet and Awards Convention and will receive a traveling trophy and certificate. Following the banquet, the trophy will be given to the Advisor for engraving purposes and returned to the winners. The winner must return the traveling trophy to the Advisor prior to the next award banquet.

Definitions: Sportsmanship Award: Youth vote for another youth they feel sets a good example, is a team player, not a sore winner or sore loser. Booster Award: Youth vote for another youth they feel encourages others, motivates, inspires youth to do their best and helps youth when needed, gives other youth a shoulder to cry on.
